PAYROLL: OFFICIAL PAY DATES

PAYROLL: OFFICIAL PAY DATES

I. INTRODUCTION

    This chapter provides guidelines regarding the official pay dates for the payroll periods established by the University.
    The chapter also includes Appendices, which contain the official pay date tables for the University pay periods from 2005 through 2017.[1]

*   The official pay dates for the Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory are not included in this chapter.

II. GUIDELINES

    A. DEFINITIONS

        1. Banking Day

*   A banking day is any day on which the Federal Reserve Bank is open for business. The Federal Reserve Bank is open every day with the exception of a Federal holiday, a Saturday, or a Sunday.

        2. Non-Working Day

            A non-working day is any day that is a University holiday, a Saturday, or a Sunday.

        3. Pay Date

*   The pay date is the check date for check-based payments or the settlement date for direct deposit, i.e., automatic clearing house (ACH), payments. The pay date is the same date regardless of the payment method.

    B. PAY PERIODS

        The following pay periods are applicable to the University of California.

[1] The pay dates listed in the Appendices may differ from those established at individual locations due to local administrative holidays.

1. Monthly

    The monthly pay period begins on the first calendar day of the month and ends on the last calendar day of the month.

2. Semi-Monthly

    The first semi-monthly pay period of the month begins on the first calendar day of the month and ends on the 15th calendar day. The second semi-monthly pay period begins on the 16th calendar day of the month and ends on the last calendar day of the month.

3. Biweekly

*   The biweekly pay period takes place at two-week intervals from 12:01 a.m. Sunday morning to midnight Saturday of the following week.

C. PAYMENT SCHEDULES

    The following guidelines detail the number of elapsed days from the close of a pay period to the scheduled pay date.

    1. Monthly

        Current - Payment is scheduled for the first working day following the close of the pay period. If a non-working day occurs between the end of the pay period and the first working day of the next pay period, payment is made on the last working day of the pay period, except that December earnings are always
*   paid on the first banking day after January 1. Note: Direct deposit transactions for the December payroll must not be scheduled to have a settlement date prior to January 2. Only twelve monthly pay dates may occur within a calendar year.

        Arrears - Payment is scheduled for the fifth working day (for southern campuses), or the sixth working day for northern campuses) following the close of the pay period, but not later than the 8th of the month.
        Only twelve monthly arrears pay dates may occur
        within a calendar year.

II. GUIDELINES (Cont.)
     C.   PAYMENT SCHEDULES (Cont.)

          2.   Semi-Monthly[2]

               Payment is scheduled for the sixth working day following the close of the pay period, except that no payday may be later than the 8th of the month for the second pay period, nor the 23rd of the month for the first pay period. Only twenty-four semi-monthly pay dates may occur within a calendar year.

          3.   Biweekly

               Payment is scheduled for the second Wednesday following the close of the pay period. If the second Wednesday is a holiday, then the payday is the first working day prior to that holiday, except for the New Year's holiday for which the pay date will always be the first banking day after January
     *   1. A minimum of twenty-six and a maximum of twenty-seven biweekly pay dates may occur within a calendar year.[3]

          Any proposed changes in these payment schedules must be Approved by the Executive Vice President and Chief *   Financial Officer.

     D.   RELEASE OF PAYROLL CHECKS

          Payroll checks are dated with the official University pay date (see the Appendices to this chapter for the scheduled official payment dates listed by pay period).
          Checks are released and become negotiable as of the date of the check. The actual release of the payroll check from the accounting office is predicated on the manner of distribution of the check to the employee. The University offers several different disposition alternatives to employees. Subject to campus policy, the following dispositions are available:

          1)   Departmental pickup for distribution to individual employees.

     *   2)   Direct deposit via ACH to an employee's bank account.
          3)   U.S. Postal Service to an address off campus.

[2] Used only at Berkeley.
[3] During a calendar year when 27 biweekly pay dates occur, Health and DepCare Flexible Spending Account deductions must be limited to 12 monthly deductions, the annual maximum number of deductions permissible.

4)   Campus mail to an individual employee.

Checks scheduled for individual or departmental pickup should be released to the office or messenger on the official pay date.

Checks sent via campus mail should be delivered to the mailing services so that they may be delivered with the first departmental mail on the official pay date.

Checks sent via the U.S. Postal Service are to be released to the Post Office so that they may arrive at the local destination on the official pay date.

III. RESPONSIBILITIES

*   Accounting Office - Ensure that pay dates are communicated to employees and that that pay periods and pay dates are indicated on earnings statements and check stubs. Ensure that employee requests for check disposition are processed in a timely manner.[4]

*   Payroll Coordination - Provide campuses with advance notice of official pay schedules and changes in pay dates and related payment procedures.
