CHANCELLORS
DIRECTOR, LAWRENCE BERKELEY NATIONAL LABORATORY

Delegation of Authority--Revolving Fund Withdrawals

Standing Order of The Regents 100.4 (pp) states:

The President shall be the representative of the Corporation in, and is authorized to execute agreements in connection with, all matters relating to bank accounts and bank services; banking relationships; financial and banking type services provided by entities other than banks, including but not limited to, the following . . .

* * *

3. The President is authorized to designate representatives of the University who may sign checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money or initiate electronic transfers of funds against University checking accounts, provided that all such representatives are covered by fidelity bond. The President is authorized to approve the use of and to direct banks or other depositories to honor facsimile signatures.

Effective immediately, you are authorized to recommend such representatives to the President. This authority may be redelegated by each Chancellor or Laboratory Director to a specific designee, but may not be further redelegated.

This delegation supersedes the June 3, 2002 delegation of authority to Chancellors, and Laboratory Director on the same subject, DA 2130.
