Bylaw 22.2(c) of The Regents states that:

“The matters in the following areas are specifically reserved to the Board and/or its Committees for approval or other action, within parameters that may be specified in a Committee Charter or Regents Policy:

....
(c) Finance Matters

- Approving University participation in non-health—related corporations, partnerships and other entities, except for investment purposes, and within parameters specified by Committee Charter or Regents Policy”

MEDICAL CENTERS

- Davis
- Irvine
- UCLA
- San Diego
- San Francisco

On September 17, 2020, the Board of Regents approved UCLA’s participation in the limited liability company to be known as the University Technology Licensing Program, LLC (UTLP) to facilitate licensing of University patent assets. The approval included an authorization for the President to approve and execute, after consultation with UC Legal and the UCOP Office of Research and Innovation:

NATIONAL LABORATORIES

- Lawrence Berkeley
- Lawrence Livermore
- Los Alamos

- (i) any documents reasonably required to join UTLP, consistent with the terms and conditions of the Regents approval; and
- (ii) any modifications, addenda, or amendments thereto, provided such amendments or other documents are materially consistent with the terms and conditions as set forth in the Regents approval.

The above authorities granted to me pursuant to the Board of Regents approval on September 17, 2020 are delegated to you as Chancellor of the Los Angeles campus, effective December 14, 2020. Per the Board of Regents approval, the President retains the sole authority to make any appointments on behalf of UCLA to the board of UTLP, and UCLA is not authorized to directly contribute any campus funds towards the operation of UTLP other than funds generated by UTLP and applied toward operations in accordance with the UTLP agreement.

This authority may only be re-delegated to the Vice Chancellor with oversight of the technology licensing program of the campus.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Michael V. Drake, MD". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, looped initial "M".
