PROVOST AND EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT – ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Delegation of Authority to Establish Regulations Implementing Regents' Policies Governing the Determination of California Residence for Purposes of the University's Tuition and Fees and the Exemption or Waiver of Such Tuition and Fees

On March 29, 2012, The Regents approved an amendment to Standing Order of The Regents 110.2, Matters Relating to Residency, that authorized the President, in consultation with the General Counsel, to establish all regulations necessary to implement The Regents' policies governing the determination of California residence for tuition and fee purposes and the exemption or waiver of such tuition and fees.

Standing Order of The Regents 110.2 states:

The Regents shall establish policies governing the determination of California residence for purposes of University of California's tuition and fees and the exemption or waiver of such tuition and fees. The President, in consultation with the General Counsel of The Regents, shall implement such policies by establishing all necessary regulations.

Effective immediately, I delegate the above authority to the Provost and Executive Vice President – Academic Affairs. You may redelegate this authority.
