I. POLICY SUMMARY

It is the policy of the University of California that employees who receive any part of their salary through the University, or whose activities use any University resources or facilities, must submit their proposals for extramural support through the appropriate local contracts and grants office. Awards must be made to The Regents of the University of California.

II. DEFINITIONS

Not applicable

III. POLICY TEXT

This requirement is necessary to insure that all research and other extramurally funded projects conducted by University employees, or with the use of University resources or facilities, are approved by the appropriate University contract and grant office and comply with relevant University policies, and guidelines, including but not limited to those governing:

- integrity in research,
- appropriateness of the activity to the University,
- protection of human and animal subjects and the environment,
- use of University facilities,
- adherence to personnel policies,
- compensation plans,
- intellectual property,
- conflicts of interest,
- recovery of direct and indirect costs.
- liability insurance and indemnification, and
- professional liability coverage.

IV. COMPLIANCE / RESPONSIBILITIES

Each Chancellor is responsible for establishing procedures to ensure compliance with this Policy

V. PROCEDURES

Exceptions to the requirement to submit proposals and awards through the University may be granted by Chancellors in unusual circumstances on a case by case basis, after consideration of the policy areas cited above, when it is in the best interest of the University. When an exception is granted, there must be a clear distinction between service to the University and service to the external party, relevant personnel policies shall be followed, the name of the University shall not be used by the external party, and in no case shall the University assume liability for a third party's action without the approval of the Regents as required by the Bylaws and Standing Orders of The Regents.
